

RogersRoses

Gardens to visit in the United Kingdom

Eccleston Square Garden

Photograph by Bill Grant

Over 400 different roses, including many climbers and a National Collection of ceanothus. The garden is sub-divided into mini-gardens including camellia, iris, fern and rose.

Eccleston Square Garden
National Garden Scheme

London SW1V 1NP

Off Belgrave Rd near Victoria Station

Website: www.ngs.org.uk

Open: once a year in May for the National Garden Scheme, see website for date.

Admission: adults £2, children £1.

Facilities: parking, teas, plant sales, children's play area.

'Rosa Mundi'