

RogersRoses

Gardens to visit in the United Kingdom

Longleat

The Love Labyrinth. Photograph by Bill Grant

Longleat is set in more than 900 acres of 'Capability' Brown landscaped parkland with a further 8,000 acres of woodlands, lakes and farmland. The historic garden has undergone many changes over the centuries; one of its recent additions, the Love Labyrinth, planted with roses, is outstanding.

Longleat

Warminster, Wiltshire BA12 7NW

3m SW of Warminster, 4½m SE of Frome on A362

Tel: (01985) 844400 Fax: (01985) 844885

Email: enquiries@longleat.co.uk

Website: www.longleat.co.uk

Open: daylight hours daily all year, except Christmas.

Love Labyrinth from mid-March to end of October.

Admission: adults (grounds & gardens) £3,

OAPs & children aged 3-14, £2.

Facilities: parking, toilets, shops, restaurant, educational and research facilities. Safari park, mazes and a butterfly garden.

'Rosa Mundi'